In the Matter of: 839-050-0020(9)

Statutory Authority: ORS 183 and ORS 651.060(4)

Other Authority:

Stats. Implemented: ORS 183

Need for the Rule(s): The proposed rule amendments would clarify statutory and regulatory requirements for out-of-state attorneys to appear in agency contested cases. The proposed rule would define the duty of a sponsoring local attorney to participate meaningfully in the contested case.

Documents relied upon, and where they are available: N/A

Fiscal and Economic Impact:

No fiscal or economic impact is expected as this rule only clarifies existing law and does not change agency practice.

How were small businesses involved in the development of this rule? No small business input was involved because the proposed rule amendments would not change existing law.

Administrative Rule Advisory Committee consulted? No.

If not, why? This proposed amendment would conform the rule with statutory law.
