Challenge of Classroom Instruction

(1) Private Security Providers Training Challenge.

(a) A person may challenge the eight-hour basic classroom instruction component of the training requirement as described in OAR 259-060-0060 if the person:

(A) Has two or more years of experience in the field of law enforcement, military police or private security services; or

(B) Has received any private security or law enforcement training.

~~(C) For purposes of these rules, private security includes alarm monitoring.~~

(b) The applicant will only be given one opportunity to challenge the mandated basic classroom instruction course by successfully completing the required written examination administered by a certified private security instructor in accordance with OAR 259-060-0065.

(A) The applicant must submit to the Department the original Form PS-6, sealed in the approved tamper-proof bag, and the completed application packet. The instructor must fully complete the form.

(B) Failure to obtain a passing score on the challenged examination will require attendance at the mandated basic classroom instruction course and successful completion of the examination.

(C) A person who successfully challenges the basic classroom instruction component of the training:

(i) Is required to successfully complete the four-hour assessment module; and

(ii) Must receive from the instructor a private security professional manual, that contains the curriculum of the basic classroom instruction component, to serve as a resource for the challenging applicant.

(2) This provision is intended to recognize formal education and work experience.
