

Fish and Wildlife Adaptation Workshop
Oregon Global Warming Commission Natural Resources Committee
August 5, 2008, 1-5 pm
Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife Headquarters, Commission Room 3406 Cherry Ave. NE, Salem, OR

Agenda

- 1:00 pm Welcome, desired outcomes
Roy Elicker, Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife
Sara Vickerman, Defenders of Wildlife

- 1:05 pm Introductions, facilitation, housekeeping
Holly Michael, Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife

- 1:10 pm Josh Lawler, University of Washington
Overview of climate change impacts on wildlife

- 1:30 pm Tony Svejcar, USDA Agriculture Research Services, Sagebrush Cooperative
Impacts in rangelands and sagebrush

- 1:50 pm Tom Spies, US Forest Service, Pacific Northwest Research Station
Impacts in west-side forests

- 2:10 pm Charlotte Corkran, Northwest Ecological Research Institute
Amphibians and reptiles as bellwether species

- 2:30 pm Mark Petrie, Ducks Unlimited
Impact of sea-level rise on coastal estuaries

- 2:50 pm Stan Gregory, Oregon State University
Riparian habitat and aquatic species

- 3:10 pm Break

- 3:25 pm Bob Davison, Defenders of Wildlife
Overview of wildlife adaptation policy alternatives

- 3:45 pm Michael Pope, Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife
Climate change and the Oregon Conservation Strategy

- 3:55 pm Questions to the panel, discussion

- 4:55 pm Wrap-up