RULE SUMMARY

Chapter 867, Oregon Laws 2007 (HB 2740) amends ORS 809.600(1) to include the offense of aggravated vehicular homicide. OAR 735-064-0100 lists things a person driving on a hardship or probationary permit must not do, including being convicted or forfeiting bail for an offense listed in ORS 809.600(1). As the offenses in ORS 809.600(1) are listed in OAR 735-064-0100(1)(c), DMV has amended the rule to include the offense of aggravated vehicular homicide. Also the term IID installer is being changed to IID provider to make the terminology consistent with the administrative rules in OAR Chapter 735 Division 118 which describe approved ignition interlock devices.
