

Note

Although re-use of treated wood is not included according to this document, it is a preferred management option for most projects. Reuse is specifically disallowed by the Army Corps of Engineers programmatic permit for the OTIA III Bridge Program and requires a waiver for any such projects using that programmatic permit. All other projects can re-use treated timbers or sell/donate them for re-use elsewhere, and are encouraged to do so.

Continue to OTIA III Material & Contamination Performance Standards Manual.