

Materials List/Input Inventory

NOP 205.105, 205.201(a)(2)

Inputs include, but are not limited to: pesticides, pheromones, fertilizers, detergents, cleaners, sanitizers, potting media, seed treatments, etc. Use additional sheets as necessary. Other accepted file formats include Excel, Word, etc., but must include the same information.

Business Name:

Customer ID: AG-C000__OC

Date:

| Product name as it appears on label | Manufacturer as it appears on SDS | Approved for organic use by: (OMRI, WSDA, CDFA, or NOP) | Intended use | Location used | Location stored | Applied by a contractor? (List contractor) | Does this input contact organic product or product contact surfaces (containers, packing tables, etc.)? |
|-------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|---|--------------|---------------|-----------------|--|---|
|                                     |                                   |   |              |               |                 |  |   |
|                                     |                                   |   |              |               |                 |  |   |
|                                     |                                   |   |              |               |                 |  |   |
|                                     |                                   |   |              |               |                 |  |   |
|                                     |                                   |   |              |               |                 |  |   |
|                                     |                                   |   |              |               |                 |  |   |
|                                     |                                   |   |              |               |                 |  |   |
|                                     |                                   |   |              |               |                 |  |   |
|                                     |                                   |   |              |               |                 |  |   |