

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

Storytellers

What details do you learn from the pictures?

What details do you learn from the text?

I get around by wriggling my body back and forth, like a snake. In strong currents I use my round mouth to suck on rocks until I have enough energy to continue up stream. I do not have a jaw. My mouth is round and my teeth go in a circle too. My teeth are made of keratin like your fingernails, but they are very strong. Who am I?

What is similar about the text and the pictures?

