

IRA – Workers Compensation Exemption Form

For informational purposes ONLY

Resource Provider / Company Name	Company Owner(s)
Mailing / Payment Address	City	State	Zip Code
Primary Phone Number	Secondary Phone

Oregon Revised Statute chapter 656 provides that all workers are subject to the workers' compensation statutes, unless they are exempted as nonsubject. If you are claiming an exemption, please indicate below which applies:

<input type="checkbox"/>	656.027 (7)(a)	The above-mentioned company is a sole proprietorship and does not have additional employees.
<input type="checkbox"/>	656.027 (8) (9)	The above-mentioned company is either a: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Partnership, and all employees are also partners, or • Limited liability company, and all employees are also members.
<input type="checkbox"/>	656.027 (10)	The above-mentioned company is a corporation, and all employees are also: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Corporate officers, • Directors, and • Have a substantial ownership interest in the corporation*
<input type="checkbox"/>	656.850 (3)	The above-mentioned company uses workers provided by a worker leasing company or a professional employer organization that carries the required workers compensation coverage.
<input type="checkbox"/>	656.850 (1)(b)	The above-mentioned company only uses workers provided by a temporary service provider on a temporary basis and has written documentation that states how long the work will last and documents the special situation that requires temporary help. The special situation either falls under: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Employee absences or leaves, • Professional skill shortages, • Seasonal workloads, or • Special assignments or projects.

*"Substantial ownership" means a percentage of ownership equal to or greater than the average percentage of ownership of all the owners, or ten percent, whichever is less.