To start, who qualifies for these services?

A person has a Substance Use Need, where an ASAM Criteria or equivalent assessment has indicated the individual would meet at least ASAM level 1.0, indicating the need for outpatient SUD treatment, and is homeless, at risk of homelessness, is fleeing a dangerous situation related to violence, is an individual living with children or is in an unaccompanied youth. OR the individual meets at least one of the risk criteria that are outlined in the SUD 1115 Special Terms and Conditions, found under attachment F, and is expected to benefit from Community Integration Services or Employment Services.

Housing Supports

- H2014, Modifier V2
 - $25.75 per 15 minutes
 - Max Unit per Day: 99

SUD Waiver Housing Supports

- Two Options:
 - Individual Housing and Pre-Tenancy Services:
 - Pre-tenancy focuses on coaching and preparation activities to aid the individual in locating and obtaining housing, it can include things like budgeting support, filling out applications, helping them create individualized housing support plans, and supporting them in identifying and securing resources to obtain housing.
 - Individual Housing and Tenancy Sustaining Services
 - Housing and Tenancy Sustaining services can include assisting on-going with their individualized housing support plan, assisting in securing and maintaining entitlements and benefits, and helping them secure supports to preserve independent living.

Housing supports services are meant to increase the success of a person transitioning out of an IMD setting back to their community, to live in an independent setting and should be tailored to each individual's goals that will maintain their personal health and welfare in that home and community based setting. These support services fall under two options: Individual Housing and Pre-Tenancy Services, and Individual Housing and Tenancy Sustaining services.

Pre-tenancy focuses on coaching and preparation activities to aid the individual in locating and obtaining housing, it can include things like budgeting support, filling out applications, helping them create individualized housing support plans, and supporting them in identifying and securing resources to obtain housing.

Housing and Tenancy Sustaining services can include assisting on-going with their individualized housing support plan, assisting in securing and maintaining entitlements and benefits, and helping them secure supports to preserve independent living.

Housing Supports

- What's not included?
 - Rent or Room & Board costs
 - Capital costs for development or modification of housing
 - Utilities or other regular occurring bills
 - Goods/Services for leisure or recreation
 - Services to people in corrections institutions or an institution of mental disease (other than services that meet the exception to the IMD exclusion)

Employment Supports

- H2014, Modifier V1
 - $25.75 per 15 minutes
 - Max Units per Day: 99

SUD Waiver Employment Supports

- Pre-Employment Services (Individual and small group)
 - Pre-employment services really focus on workplace readiness, coaching and classes related to professionalism, soft skills, resume and interview coaching, and increasing coping mechanisms for adverse behaviors that can impact a person ability to secure and maintain employment.
- Employment Sustaining Services (individual and small group)
 - Employment Sustaining Services are focused on addressing barriers related to maintaining employment, and may include transportation assistance, assisting the person with linking them to high quality child care and after-school programs, and programs that increase the adults' capacity to participate in work or community engagement activities.

Employment support services are meant to assist the individual in obtaining and maintaining their employment in the community. Employment services are broken down in to 2 categories, Pre-Employment Services, and Employment Sustaining Services, both of which may be done individually or in a small group.

Pre-employment services really focus on workplace readiness, coaching and classes related to professionalism, soft skills, resume and interview coaching, and increasing coping mechanisms for adverse behaviors that can impact a person ability to secure and maintain employment.

Employment Sustaining Services are focused on addressing barriers related to maintaining employment, and may include transportation assistance, assisting the person with linking them to high quality child care and after-school programs, and programs that increase the adults' capacity to participate in work or community engagement activities.

Employment Services

- What's not included?
 - 1. Generalized employer contacts that are not connected to a specific enrolled individual or an authorized service.
 - 2. Employment support for individuals in sub-minimum wage, or sheltered workshop settings.
 - 3. Facility-based habilitation or personal care services.
 - 4. Wage or wage enhancements for individuals.
 - 5. Duplicative services from other state or federal programs.
 - 6. Medicaid funds to defray the expenses associated with starting up or operating a business.
