

Offering the National Diabetes Prevention Program in Oregon

Is your organization interested in delivering the National Diabetes Prevention Program (NDPP) lifestyle change program - the nation's foremost evidence-based program for the prevention of type 2 diabetes?

If you're in Oregon and would like to learn more about what's involved in delivering the NDPP, including opportunities for NDPP lifestyle coach training, contact Don Kain, National DPP Master Trainer and Diabetes Program Education & Outreach Manager at the Harold Schnitzer Diabetes Health Center at Oregon Health & Science University, 503.494.5249 or kaind@ohsu.edu.