TELL ME MORE

This online benefit estimate is based on information reported by your employer(s) on the date you generate your estimate and on the data you input. The accuracy of your estimate will depend on how clearly the information you provide, and the information provided by your employer(s), matches the information used to calculate your benefit at the time you retire. Changes to contributions, earnings, retirement credit, final average salary, calculation factors, laws, and/or other information used to develop this estimate will also affect the accuracy of the estimate.

PERS is not bound by any estimate provided through Online Member Services (ORS 238.455(6)).

This online estimate does not entitle you to any benefits. Your benefits are determined in accordance with ORS Chapters 238 and 238A when benefits are first paid. If PERS at any time becomes aware of an error in your benefits, whether the error was made by you, your employer(s), or by PERS, PERS is required to correct the error. PERS may also be required to make corrections as a result of court decisions or other changes in law. Corrections may result in an increase or
